

Austin Film Festival Presents: Conversations in Film with Shane Black

The Austin Film Festival brings the first installment of the 2009 Conversations in Film, a year-round series of film seminars open to writers, filmmakers and anyone interested in film. Join AFF for a special screening of "Kiss Kiss, Bang Bang," written and directed by Shane Black.

Following the film, Shane Black, one of the AFF's most popular panelists, will hold a Conversations in Film discussion on creating timeless tough guys and even tougher women, Ponzi schemes, exhilarating plot twists, directing your own script, the meaning of life, and what smashes into something else and what explodes when that happens.

WHEN: Thursday, January 29, 2009
Screening at 7:00 p.m.
Conversation with Shane Black immediately following

WHERE: Alamo Lake Creek
13729 Research Blvd
Austin, TX 78750
